

LOCAL NEWS

DISTRICT court formally adjourned Saturday.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI for Weak Nerves.

THERE was a good crowd in the city Saturday evening and trade was good.

The little son of Mr. Williams, who was trampled on by a horse a few days ago and seriously hurt, is improving rapidly.

The recently closed chili stand is undergoing repairs and will be opened by F. K. Pfinghaupt as a confectionery and grocery store.

Trains have been discontinued on the Montgomery branch of the Santa Fe on account of the track being submerged in water, until the water subsides.

It was reported here Saturday morning that the Brazos was still rising Friday night. It is out of its banks and much damage will be sustained in the bottoms.

McElree's WINE OF CARDUI for female diseases.

ATTENTION is directed to the change in the advertisement of Messrs. A. & H. Harrison, which announces the continuation of their alteration sale until the 10th of May. Part of the material for the handsome glass front that they will soon have put in is on the ground.

ABE TILLMANS was drowned in Kuykendall creek sixteen miles east of this city, Friday, while in bathing and playing with a horse. It seems that Tillman was playing with the horse in the water, trying to "duck" the animal when he was shook loose and not being able to swim was drowned before assistance could reach him. His body was recovered and his funeral took place Saturday.

The Brenham ice factory has been thoroughly overhauled by Messrs. Beaumier Bros., and is now turning out an adequate supply of ice of excellent quality, which is a great convenience compared to the trouble that citizens were subjected to in securing ice during the latter part of last season when they had to send off after it. It is one of Brenham's manufacturing industries that we can't well do without and should be encouraged.

WINE OF CARDUI, a Tonic for Women.

TRELAT, the new educational game, which Miss Palmerlee has been distributing here for the past week with advertisements of the business firms of the city in the blank spaces, is a similar game to that of checkers. One of the differences being that every corner is a double corner and ten spots on each side are numbered from zero to 9, likewise the blocks. Moves are made for king row jumping as opportunity offers, only numbers are counted, 333 being trelat, or the game, full explanation of how to play being on each of the cards containing the game. It is a great game.

WALKER's photograph gallery has been turning out stacks of photographs during the past week that are a credit to any gallery. See his specimens, learn his prices and you will want a dozen.

The Santa Fe Saloon.

Mr. Wm. Hamelmann has been having the interior of the Santa Fe saloon repaired, repapered, refurnished and fixed up generally and now has one of the handsomest places of business in the city, where he not only keeps a full assortment of liquid refreshments, but in addition to a well supplied lunch counter will have a 16 quart coffee-pot, so that passengers desiring a lunch and a cup of coffee can get it while the train is waiting.

Mr. Hamelman, having made all the improvements necessary on the interior, put in a new refrigerator and a handsome walnut counter, will now commence to beautify the exterior and make the surroundings comfortable. The fence on the south side is to be torn away and a gallery put up on that side, making a gallery all around the saloon so that a lounging place on the shady side can be found any time of the day. In addition to this the contract for giving it a thorough painting has been let, and when completed it will be without exception the most inviting bar in the city.

SOMETHING that is of interest to every body. Read and you will be convinced that this is an opportunity never before presented. Until further notice, we will, for $5 (Five Dollars) make one dozen of our finest Cabinet Photographs, and one 16x20 Bromide Portrait. This is actually less than the price of the large picture. As our regular price for this picture alone is $9. Remember that these pictures are perfect copies of the Cabinet Photo, and are superior as to likeness and equal as to finish, of many of the more expensive crayon portraits. Samples of these pictures are on exhibition at the gallery, and we would be pleased to have you call and examine them. SNELL & BLACKBURN.
